Vocalists ...

Summerites Hear Quintet; Marmeim Appears July 5

The Vocal Arts Quintet today opened the summer Artist Series in the Main Auditorium. Three feminine members of the group known as the Vocaliers sang selections ranging from the old masters to those of the current "South Pacific."

Members of the Quintet are: Miss Sylvia Saunders, soprano; Miss Bernice Fowler, contralto; Miss Grace Prince, second soprano (pianist); David Johnson, tenor; and Ray G. Steiner, basso (director).

A change in today's classes, announced through the President's Office, is in effect. However, classes will be regular from 11:20 a.m. through the day.

Miss Miriam Marmeim, pantomime and dramatic dance actress, will perform next Wednesday, July 5.

This one-woman dance theatre has lectured before the Plymouth Drama Festival, Dancing Masters of America, American Society of Dance Teachers, as well as at her summer dance theatre at Manomet, Mass.

Admission to the Artist Series assemblies is free, and the public is invited.

No Classes Monday, Tuesday Next Week

Classes will not be held Monday and Tuesday of next week, it was announced Tuesday morning by the President's Office. This means a four-day holiday from classes.

The bulletin from the president read: "I have just had my attention called to the Monday classes which are scheduled to be held before the Fourth of July holiday. Over the years this situation has happened before and it has been customary for us to substitute the Saturday immediately following the Fourth of July for the Monday preceding the Fourth. This will give us a long weekend followed by four uninterrupted days of classes. Both students and faculty are asking for this same consideration this year. It seems reasonable that we make this modification.

"Please announce to your classes that there will be no classes Monday, July 3, and work will be scheduled for Saturday, July 8."

U.S. Marine Band Returns Sept. 28

The United States Marine Band will open the 1950-51 Artist Series here Sept. 28 with afternoon and evening concerts, Prof. Wilbur J. A. Bell, committee chairman, announced today.

More than 5,000 people heard the band in similar programs on the campus two years ago.

Major William F. Santelmann is the leader of the organization, which is the oldest in the United States.

Other numbers on the series will be announced later.

Batchelder Starts Scholarship Fund

A one hundred dollar award will be given each year to the graduating senior woman rated highest in English or English literature by Ann Batchelder, associate editor of Ladies' Home Journal.

Miss Batchelder chose the award to express her appreciation for the honorary degree of doctor of humane letters which she received at the June 9 Commencement.

Summer Enrollment Decreases; Grad School Shows Increase

Library Addition To Replace Dorm

Removal of the small dormitory between the Library and the Theta Phi sorority house on East Wooster St., will begin soon to make room for a proposed addition to the Library.

The six women occupants of the "Gizmo," as it is popularly known, will be provided with housing facilities in a new addition to be built above the kitchen of the Theta Phi house.

John K. Raney, university architect, also announced that plans are complete for a new dormitory to be constructed on the recently acquired Urschel property, near the Windmill.

The new dorm will be of brick construction similar to the Alpha Xi Delta house. It is expected to be ready for occupancy by Feb., 1951.

Rock removal from the tunnels near the Practical Arts Bldg. has been accelerated by using blasting instead of the customary air hammers.

Got Your Key?

A limited number of 1950 Keys are available to students and faculty or to anyone wishing to pay full purchase price for them.

Students who attended Bowling Green for the full academic year 1949-50 can receive a copy on payment of the 12 cent sales tax. Students who attended only one semester must pay $2.05.

Faculty, summer school students, alumni, and others may get a copy by paying the $4 purchase price.

Those interested in getting a copy of the yearbook should contact Prof. Russell N. Baird in the Journalism Dept. office any day from 10 to 12 a.m.

15 Accepted For Medical Schools

Fifteen Bowling Green State University students will enter professional colleges of medicine and dentistry this fall. Fourteen of the group carried pre-professional courses in the College of Liberal Arts and one is studying graduate biology. They will enter seven different professional colleges or universities in the East and Middle West.

Entering the Medical College at The Ohio State University are: Charles A. Dudgeon, Rockford, O.; Eugene Kinsky, Cleveland; Franklin Lyon, Findlay; and Harry O. Newland, Dover. Robert D. Barber, Celina, and Forrest S. Warner, Jr., Portage, will enter the Medical College at the University of Cincinnati; Albert Goh of Singapore, Malaya, will enter Western Reserve Medical College; Harold Jaffe of Passaic, N. J., will enter St. Louis University Medical College; and Theodore Hahn, Chicago, Ill., will enter the University of Louisville Medical School.

Enrollment for the summer session has reached the mark of 1,350 students enrolled in the three colleges and Graduate School of the University. The total falls slightly short of last year's record-breaking enrollment of 1,594.

Veteran enrollment has slumped about 40 per cent since last summer. There are 467 veterans as compared to 760 last year and 796 in the summer of 1948.

Summer Hours Arranged For Campus Services

Summer hours for various campus services were announced today by their directors.

Opening hours for the Nest will be from 6 a.m. to 7:30 p.m., Mrs. William Wright, manager, said. However, on Sunday the hours will be from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The Post Office, located in the Administration Bldg. just south of the Well, will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday.

Library hours will be from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday. On Friday and Saturday the hours will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday afternoon the hours will be from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The University Book Store has announced that supplies may be obtained from 8 p.m. to 11:45 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, with Saturday morning hours 8 to 11:45.

Hospital hours are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday hours will be 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. No regular hours will be held on Sunday. Emergencies will be handled at anytime. When calling the hospital for excuses or information phone 3281.

News Delayed

Next week's BEE GEE NEWS will be issued on Thursday instead of Wednesday because of the Fourth of July holiday.

Copies of the paper may be obtained from the tables in front of the Book Store windows in the Administration Bldg.

Chorus Rehearsing; Concert Is Planned

The fifth annual Summer Chorus was organized last week under the direction of Dr. James Paul Kennedy. Rehearsals will be held on Monday and Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Practical Arts Bldg.

Although the first turn-out was sparse, Dr. Kennedy expressed the hope that the chorus would have approximately 100 members. He said that he needed several accompanists.

Membership is open to all summer school students, their wives or husbands, and townspeople. No past choral experience is necessary and anyone desiring to join should contact Dr. Kennedy in the Recital Hall.

Members of A Cappella Choir who are attending the summer session will also rehearse twice weekly. They will be preparing and learning scores for next semester's choir work.

The activities of the Chorus will culminate later in the summer

Sixty-four new veterans have entered the University for the first time. Last year there were only 40. Most of the new veterans are enrolled in the Graduate School.

Partial explanation to the sudden drop in veteran enrollment is the fact that many veterans pay their own way during the summer in order to save their eligibility on the G.I. Bill. Another point to be considered is that the G.I. Bill has expired for many veterans and they are no longer considered in the count by the VA Office.

The Graduate School's enrollment has increased by 29 students to make a total of 119. Last year the total enrollment was 90.

Students enrolled in the Huron Playhouse, and teachers registered in the tally.

Auto, Parking Rules Announced

Parking spaces on campus streets will not be assigned during the summer, but all cars must be registered at the office of the dean of students, Arch B. Conklin, dean of students, said today.

A decal will be required to be displayed on each car on campus, he said.

To make an out-of-town trip, a woman student must obtain a permit in the office of the dean of students.

While the recent modification of the University car rules will not go into practice until September, last year's rules "limiting the use of an auto to transportation purposes only" remain in effect.

Beginning with the fall session, a student may drive an automobile in Bowling Green only if he can establish a need for it.

when it presents an all-campus concert. The A Cappella Choir will also participate.

Selections to be performed will be varied in theme and mood. Brahms' "Song of Fate" will be the central work presented. Selections from "The Tales Of Hoffman," folk songs, and the lighter melodies from "South Pacific," comprise part of the program. Rounding out the concert will be several Fred Waring novelty numbers and "The Flight of the Bumble Bee."

Exact date of the all-campus concert will be announced later.

Editorial . . .

The program schedule for the 1950-'51 Artist Series, one of the most outstanding projects on the Bowling Green State University social calendar, is soon to be made public. Interest in this series will be sharpened by today's announcement of the re-appearance of the United States Marine Band, which played here before 5,000 people two years ago.

We can be genuinely proud of our Artist Series. There are only a few colleges and universities in this country which can boast of performers of such consistently high quality as those brought here. During the past season, for example, artists such as Burl Ives, Charles Laughton, Lauritz Melchior, Margaret Truman, and Louis Untermeyer graced the platform of the Men's Gymnasium. Unofficial reports concerning the coming year's agenda set the quality of the artists at nearly the same level.

All in all, during the 36 seasons in which the programs have been presented, over 475 artists and lecturers have been the guests of Bowling Green State University. The list reads a little like President Truman's guest book: it includes such figures as Gladys Swarthout, Helen Traubel, Conrad Thibault, Carl Sandburg, Albert Spaulding, Andre Maurois, Count Von Luckner, and Will Durant. The list could go on and on.

Few realize the incredible amount of correspondence handling, polling of representative listeners, and sifting of prospects which goes into the preparation of each project. The Artist Series Committee, consisting of Prof. Wilbur J. Abell, chairman; Prof. Merrill C. McEwen; Dr. Elden T. Smith; and students Raymond G. Rennebaum and Robert Conschaffer, deserves all the commendations that can be heaped upon it.

First Blind Veteran Graduated In June

By FRED TODD

Robert C. Oberhouse, 26-year-old blind veteran, graduated June 9, from the College of Liberal Arts to become the first sightless student to receive a degree from this university.

A sociology major, Mr. Oberhouse was given all tests and exams orally and was furnished a person by the government to read him his lessons. He had attended college winter and summer since September, 1946.

Five Grads Receive Army Commissions

Five June graduates recently received permanent commissions as second lieutenants in the Regular Army.

Lyle Berner, Norwalk; Harry Brockman, Bay Village; Edward Effertz, Chicago, Ill.; James I. Miller, Philadelphia, Penna.; and Robert Rennebaum, Brecksville, were administered the oath June 9 in the office of Dr. Frank J. Prout, president of the university.

The ceremony was the first of its kind since the ROTC unit was organized two years ago.

He was elected chairman of the Blinded Veterans Ass'n, Ohio branch, last July. Mr. Oberhouse's interest in this organization has led him to run for office on the National Board of Directors.

Formed in 1944, the BVA is made up of approximately 1500 blind veterans. Its purpose is to educate and assist handicapped veterans in finding a useful and satisfactory place in society. It is also concerned with the education of blind children.

Mr. Oberhouse is looking forward to the state meeting of the BVA in Hamilton, July 15-16, when possible legislation affecting the organization and its purposes will be discussed. An outing for members is also anticipated.

He has altered previous plans to go to Baltimore; instead he intends to spend the summer mainly on BVA work. His vacation, thus far, has included "some fishing, but not much fish," and more time at home with his 4-month-old son and wife, Luella.

Prior to entering the service, with the 37th Division of the National Guard, Mr. Oberhouse worked for the N. Y. Central Railroad. It was with the 37th "Buckeye" Division on Bougainville Island, in 1943, that he was blinded by a Japanese shell.

Mr. Oberhouse "enjoyed his college career and received the fullest co-operation from the University faculty." He would like to find a position with some state, or private, rehabilitation or welfare agency.

Just Talk

By ROGER D. BONHAM

At the June Commencement a fundamental truth which I had temporarily forgotten was reaffirmed for me. Strangely enough, the truth came not through the speech but the speaker.

Around 1 o'clock, when the violet-black thunderheads which had been gathering all day began to deluge spirits and Commencement guests, I found myself lounging in the Nest over a cup of coffee. In a short time, the visiting dignitaries began to assemble.

Mr. Jones, head of the News Bureau, appeared shepherding Dr. Bernard C. Clausen, the afternoon's speaker, whom I recognized from his photos.

The man presented a rather austere appearance. Dr. Clausen, I noted, wore cracked, high-laced shoes. His suit was settled primly over his tall, spare frame; both buttons of his double-breasted suit were firmly buttoned.

A pair of eye-glasses propped high on the bridge of his nose made me think of Dale Carnegie's picture on the front of "How to Win Friends and Influence People." But unlike Carnegie, his long, waving hair gave him a poetical air. The minister's manner was nervous and abrupt.

Sitting, later that afternoon, with the member of the visiting press (like a sparrow among eagles), it was with a sigh of boredom that I welcomed the introduction of the speaker.

But as the man's personality began to show through, I found myself pulling my bony frame erect and listening. At first, of course, the preacher did seem a little stuffy, and his gestures reminded me of an expansive drunkard. As he went on, though, the audience was electrified. Judging from the tumultuous applause following the short address, I was not alone in my feelings.

Very likely I will soon again fall into my old and unfortunate habit of making snap judgments of people. If I do, however, Dr. Clausen may rest assured that it is through no fault of his.

Side Show

By MIRIAM J. JOHNSON

Welcome to the Side Show, folks.
There's some humorous news—
And a few serious jokes.

WEDDING BELLES: The wedding report for this month is long even for June. (We'll wager many a good man has met his match!) Anyway, here's a list for a starter: Joyce Stockdale and Jim Hof—WRSM fame; Martha Kiester and Robert Harter; Suzanne Hess and Joseph Halter; Nancy Hammans and Ray Shellhammer—one-time Key editor; Edith Ware and Robert Longman; Carol Sue Humphreys and George Bucher; Mary Jo Woodward and John Taylor; Donna Bissell and Roger Northrup; Mary Garrett and Glenn Walker; Marilyn Hecklinger and Johns White; Mary Louise Schmidt and Walter Pedlow; Dorothy Irvin and Paul Oberholtzer; Rolly Ann Potter and Frank Hassett; Joan Waters and Ralph Schmid; Mary Kinney and Robert Clemons; That Isn't All and Continued Next Week.

PASS: There's nothing like a wedding
To make a fella learn.
At first he thinks she's his'n.
Later he learns he's her'n.

Three cheers plus for the swimming in Urschel Pond behind the Windmill. There's a life guard on duty from 1 to 5 p.m. and a float anchored out in the pool for sun baskers-iners.

RINGING BELLES: Jean Marie Smith ringed by William Weidner; Barbara Bower engaged to Daniel Cook; and Jeanalice Wolfe ringed by Jim Otis. June may be fine for preachers, but looks as though it's tough on jewelers.

Walking through the zoo the other day I overheard one stork say to another: "It isn't the lack of privacy I mind so much . . . but they give us such dirty looks!"

Summer Social Events Slated

Bulletin

Because of the last-minute change in scheduling the Fourth of July holiday, week-end social events will be changed. The Friday and Saturday orchestra dances will be cancelled.

Friday and Saturday movies, "Bowery to Broadway" and "The Lady Vanishes," will be shown as a double feature Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Main Auditorium.

Phyllis Yergin, social committee chairman, announced that a tentative schedule of social events for the summer has been arranged.

At least one orchestra dance has been scheduled for each week of the summer term. Orchestras will be brought in from Toledo and the surrounding area. Several street dances are scheduled, but the exact dates have not been selected.

It is anticipated that a Farewell Formal will be held on Aug. 5. The dance was a great success last year and plans are being laid to make the dance possible again this summer.

Some of the better movies scheduled are: "Destry Rides Again," with James Stewart, to be shown on Friday, July 7; the technicolor fantasy, "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves," which will be featured on Friday, July 14; and "Last Days of Pompeii," on Saturday, July 15.

All-Campus Intramural Program To Start Here July 5

Deadline for entries in the summer softball league is 5 p.m., July 3. The play will start July 5. Entries should be turned in at the athletic office.

The league will be restricted to slow pitching or "blooper ball" delivery. The pitcher must throw the ball in an arc which must be higher than the batter's head before the ball begins to drop.

All men enrolled in the summer session are eligible for play. Each team will consist of 15 men.

In addition to the softball league, a medal play golf tournament, a best-ball golf tournament, a driving contest, and hole-in-one contest are planned. Entries for the medal play are due by 5 p.m., July 7.

Other events planned in the summer intramural program are: a tennis tournament, both singles and doubles; horseshoes, singles and doubles; and a handball tournament, both singles and doubles.

The intramural program is headed by Athletic Director Harold Anderson. Dick Mulvaine will assist Mr. Anderson. All play will be supervised by members of gym classes.

Riding Course Set For Four Weeks

Mrs. Amy R. Torgerson of the Women's Physical Education Department, has announced that a summer riding course will be offered.

The course will last four weeks, Monday through Friday. Instruction and practice will be offered for $20. Service course credit will be given. Telephone 7151, if interested.

Trackmen Cop Two Firsts At Delaware Meet

Bowling Green's track team completed its 1950 spring schedule June 10, at Delaware, by competing in the All-Ohio College Meet. The Falcons took two individual championships and finished fourth as a team.

Frank Kilgore and Stan Weber copped the two individual championships for Bee Gee triumphs in the mile run and the discus throw.

Baldwin-Wallace took the team title for their fifth straight All-Ohio College track and field championship, while Miami finished second for the sixth consecutive year. B-W took four first places to lead in blue ribbons, with Stan Keel leading the way for the winners with the high point total of 11 on two firsts and a fifth place.

Frank Kilgore stepped off the mile in the record breaking time of 4:28.6, to defeat Powell of Miami by about 5 yards. Kilgore's time set a new university record in the mile run, breaking his own record of 4:30 he had posted at Miami University earlier this year.

In the last event of the day, Stan Weber heaved the discus 141 feet 2 3/4 inches to cop first place.
